

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

Light Trading in Wheat With Narrow Fluctuations.
CORN EXPERIENCES A BOOM.
Oats Quiet But Steady—Provisions Slow With Hard Leading—The Big Run of Texas Continues—Hogs Dull.
CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.
CHICAGO, August 14.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The wheat market opened at 8 1/2c, off, with September quoted at 8 1/2c and December at 8 1/4c. The price of wheat was easier on better weather and the weak closing of American markets yesterday, the latter having more influence, probably, than anything else. September closed at 8 1/2c, and December at 8 1/4c. Hutehinson was an open seller early in the day, but he bought freely most of the session below 8 1/2c for September and 8 1/4c for December. When the market got above this range he turned seller and aided to break the price back again. In this he had some trouble, as the market had a firmer undertone than it has had for several days. There was a good class of buying and most of the time very little wheat could be had without causing an advance. The general crowd was less bullish today than usual. The continued heavy movement from western points at last beginning to have an effect on the local market. "This great quantity of wheat going somewhere," sentimentally remarked a trader, "and wheat that moves as this is doing don't stop at the seaboard; it keeps right on." The closing today was at 8 1/2c for September and 8 1/4c for December, just the smallest fraction lower yesterday. The trade was not very active, and the range was narrow. Crop news from the northwest, that is, news upon which the trade seems to place most reliance, does not indicate an improvement in the prospects for spring wheat. Winter wheat that is being received at primary elevators is running at a good price. Lake shipments from this port are keeping up well.

The corn market boomed today, the fluctuations extending over a range of 1 1/2c, and a gain of 1 1/2c being established. Inside prices ruled around opening and the top was reached right at the close. The movement started the ball rolling by liberal buying at the outset. It was soon demonstrated that the market was in a badly strained and overbought state and rapid advances resulted from the efforts of the shorts to cover. The crowd had been oversteering itself with recklessness for some time, and the market was in a state of nervousness, and then they jumped to the conclusion all at once that receipts were going to taper off sharply. That made them more anxious bidders. September corn advanced from 43 1/2c to 44c, and October from 43 1/2c to 44c. August went to 43 1/2c, advancing from 42c to 43 1/2c on the filling of one smaller lot. The market was surprisingly tight for August for sale. The market was greatly excited, and more interest centered in corn than in any other grain.

Oats were far from active, although the feeling was fully steady in all futures, with something of a firm tone developed, resulting from an advance of one cent in the cash while seller was practically steady. The receipts for today were less than expected, and under a show of firmness in other markets and the movement of the market was delayed to a slight extent. Less than 20 per cent of the oats imported yesterday passed into the hands of the mill, the condition is improving each day. Cash oats to go to store were in some demand, but trading was chiefly in the futures, only eight transactions in No. 2, some at 24 1/2c.

In provision circles business was quite slow. For cash delivery purchases were somewhat larger, but the market was not very active. Traders acted as if they were unwilling to take sides on the market. No fresh news was received from the northwest, yellow fever, and with the local receipts of hogs small and of poor quality, an uncertain state of affairs existed. Dealers apparently paid little or no attention to the movement of the trade. In a speculative way pork led in interest, though it showed the greatest strength. The market was steady, and closed at a decline of 2 1/2c from yesterday's last prices. Pork covered a range of 20c in its fluctuations and at the adjustment showed an actual gain of 10c, and was strong from the start and closed 7 1/2c to 10c higher.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, August 14.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Cattle—The market was quiet for some time past the great bulk of arrivals consisted of Texas, with a liberal sprinkling of western or range cattle and a very few good native cattle. Range cattle which are coming in are of fair quality and not as fat as was estimated, considering the favorable condition for putting on flesh. Common native stock is quite freely offered. But sellers find that they have to compete with a better quality of Texas cattle offered at about the same prices, hence they find it difficult to close sales and must shade prices. Butchers and cannery bought quite freely of Texas cattle. The receipts included 6,500 Texas and western cattle; medium to good steers, 1,500 to 1,500 lbs., $3.00 to $3.50; 1,200 lbs., $4.00 to $4.50; 1,000 lbs., $3.50 to $4.00. Stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $3.00; cows, $2.00 to $2.50; calves, $1.50 to $2.00; pigs, $1.00 to $1.50; sheep, $1.00 to $1.50; hogs, $1.00 to $1.50.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle.
Tuesday, August 14, 1888.
There was little or no change in values on cattle today. The market was about steady on good cattle and weak in undesirable kinds. The market was slow to open but it closed active with a good many cattle sold.

Hogs.
The receipts of hogs were light for Tuesday, only forty-nine fresh loads being on sale. The market was about steady, but the later arrivals from Chicago and closed 10c lower. Five loads were left over unsold.

Sheep.
There were no fresh receipts but several loads of holdovers changed hands.
